REPUBLICAN WINS GEORGE WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY HANDICAP AT CHARLESTON.

Biggest Crowd of the Season Enjoys Holiday Racing at Palmetto Park-Joe Deibold Accounts for Secondary Feature.

Charleston, S. C., February 23.—J. O. Talbott's Republican, conceding top weight to good opposition, won the $2,000 George Washington Birthday Handicap, one mile and an eighth, which featured the holiday card of six races at Palmetto Park this afternoon. He was aided to his success by the good horsemanship displayed by C. Turner, G. M. Miller, after a strenuous stretch drive, got up to beat the badly ridden Ringling, the second choice of the race. During the earlier stages of the race Sleeth, Lochici and Counterpart were prominent factors, but they retired when the real racing began in the stretch. John Furlong, another starter in the race, was sumped on the stretch turn and seemingly refused to extend himself fully thereafter.

By far the largest crowd that has witnessed racing here this season was at the course this afternoon and enjoyed the sport. Betting was brisk and the thirteen layers were kept at top speed in handling the business offered. Favorites won four of the purses. The choices that failed were Cockspur and Caugh Hill.

The secondary feature, a handicap at three-quar-business offered. Favorites won four of the purses. The choices that failed were Cockspur and Caugh Hill.

The secondary feature, a handicap at three-quarters of a mile, was won by the well-backed Joebeibold. He finished a nose in advance of Sherwood, mainly because of Goose's superiority to McCahey in the saddle. The Talbott stable made it a double when the recently nequired Helen M. linished first in the closing dash half a length in advance of Jacob Bunn and Joe Stein. After the ninish, H. G. Bedwell, the filly's former owner, bid her up $100 over her entered price of $900, but she was retained with the customary advance of $5. Finalce won the opener, but it is a question if she would have scored had she not repeatedly interfered with Yellow Flower in the stretch racing. An inter ed coup with Gaty Pailen failed in the second race when Surpassing beat him to the finish by a neck in a hard drive. Banjo Jim was easily lest in the fifth and mished a good margin in advance of Knight of Uneas.

Jockey J. Hanover was suspended for three days by the stewards as a result of rough riding in the closing dash.

R. F. Carman announced today that Surprising would not be a starter in the Palmetto Derby, to be run on Saturday next.

Jockey Joe Byrne left for Aiken this morning to join the stable of his employer, Thomas Hitchcock.

A photograph of the subscription taken by General Francisco Villa to the $20,000 International Derby, to be run at the Dorval track in Canada next June, was received by starter James Milton today. It is the intention of the Mexican general to purchase a horse to run in his colors in this stake.

H. E. Harbourt has added the three-year-old Laird o' Kirkenldy to his string. He purchased the colt from J. W. Messervy this morning.

James Milton is considering an offer to do the starting on several of the Canadian tracks during the coming season. The deal is not closed as yet, but is likely to be consummated within the next few days.

HODGE AGAIN FAILS AT JUAREZ.

Kay Spence's Three-Year-Old Once More Finishes Third to Othello and Orb.

El Paso, Tex., February 23.—Kay Spence's good three-year-old, Hodge, was a starter in the five and a half furlongs handicap that served as the feature of today's card at Juarez and again failed to display the high-class form that marked his racing as a two-year-old. Hodge was the opening favorite in the betting, but the place of honor at post time was occupied by Othello and the Heath colt justified the confidence reposed in him by dashing into an early lead and retaining it to the finish. Orb was just as easily second all the way. Hodge began slowest of all and ran wide in entering the stretch, but finished well and showed improvement as compared with his only preceding start here a few days ago. He was attempting to concede weight to everything else in the race. The time was fast, the first quarter being run in :22%, the half in :40% and the five and a half furlongs in 1:05, which is but little behind the track record of 1:01% for the distance that stands to the credit of Pan Zareta.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Western Australia. Jockey Club has voted $1,000 to a relief fund for farmers whose crops were recently destroyed by hail.

No less than 417 bookmakers have been licensed during the current racing season by the Victorian Jockey Club at Melbourne, Australia.

J. M. Goode will begin this year's campaign with the following horses: Doctor Kendall, 3; Mira Del 4; Charley McFerran, 4; Jessie Louise, 3; Mrs. Pel 5; Long Reach, b. c, 2, by Out of Reach—Sist Molly, and Nettie Hastings, ch. f, 2, by Hastings-Princess Nettie.

Princess Nettle.

Sidney L. Josephthal, a skilful amateur rider, has purchased the jumper Maltble from Bayard Tuckerman and the old horse will race in his colors this year. Mr. Josephthal has purchased a 300-acre farm at Warrenton, Va., where he proposes to breed steeplechasers.

W. E. Phillips of Greenville, Ill., has arrived at Churchill Downs, Louisville, with three promising fillies by his one-time good race horse, English Lad. Only one of English Lad's produce has raced, and that is Isabelle Valle, a winner as a two-year-old last year. Along with Isabelle Valle, Mr. Phillips has two good-looking two-year-olds at Louisville.

has two good-looking two-year-olds at Louisville.

G. Allen Lee, an amateur rider who was seriously hurt by a fall at Brookline last season, has not been discouraged by that misfortune, and has made application for a license to ride this year. Mr. Lee fell with Zarda and was so seriously injured that a report of his death was sent out. He lay unconscious for a week, but came out of that experience with no recollection of the mishap.

Small prices were realized at the dispersal sale of the P. T. China stable at Juarez Saturday. A partial summary of the sale follows: Rose of Jeddah, J. Randolph, $450; Ooma, M. Preston, $675; Star Berta, D. J. McNamara, $725; General Warren, A. C. Poretto, $450; Gipsy Love, J. W. Tripe, $1,850; Peter Grimm, J. W. Fuller, $650; Martha Lee, J. L. breeders in the country, and at Chesterbrook Farm in Pennsylvania, in addition to the Aeronaut twoyear-olds that will be raced this season, he has a number of slashing big Sir John Johnson yearlings of which great things are expected.

REBUILDING AT HAVRE DE GRACE.

Buchanan, Lonisville, Ky. L. H. Adair was placed second by the judges and paid off on place and show at the track. That governs elsewhere. Pacemakers were used when Salvator made his mile record. Had Iron Mask succeeded in his attempt, his record would have stood as Salvator's grandstand and clubouse, which were destroyed by does, that is a match against time, assisted by pacemakers. Your entire percentage in 1903 was .10. Do not have it separately as to favorites.

A NOTABLE GERMAN SPORTSMAN.

Count George von Lehndorff, well-known German sportsman, who for so many years controlled the Royal Graditz Stud, recently celebrated his eightieth birthday. It was mainly owing to his efforts that horse breeding in Germany attained its present high standard, and during his lengthy career in the service of the State he has been the recipient of many decorations, inclusive of, in 1911, the First Class of the Red Eagle (with brilliants). As a gentleman rider he figured in the saddle from 1851 to 1879, his first success being gained at Konlgsberg on a horse called Bravo in 1851. Although Count Lehndorff retired last year from his position of Chief Mister of the Royal and Government Studs, he is, according to "Deutscher Sport," hale and vigorous as many a man twenty years his junior,

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

J. McTaggart slightly improved his position at the head of the American jockey list for 1914 as a result of last week's racing. His closest rival, Claver, is out of the saddle because of suspension for rough riding at Juarez. W. W. Taylor and E. Haynes figured in a tie for the saddle honors of the week, each piloting six winners. The former has advanced to third place in the list. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and including the racing of Sunday last is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF IN OTHER LANDS.

The French Grand National candidate, Lutten III., has arrived at II. Escott's stable at Lewes quite safely and is well after a smooth passage across the channel.

Lavaine, while being shipped at Liverpool, sustained serious injuries and is not expected to recover. The son of Laveno was recently purchased by Clarence Hailey, of Newmarket, to be sent to India.

The Irish owner, James Nugent, has had the bad luck to lose his promising five-year-old hurdler, Flying Silver, which botted while at exercise at The Curragh, and, injuring his back, had to be destroyed.

Frank Jay Gould has purchased Collier's former training establishment, which adjoins his property at Maisons Laffitte. As soon as the necessary alterations have been made he intends to install his trainer, Percy Lynham, there.

An addition to the jockeys now in residence at The Curragh is Bert Johnson, who has ridden in England, France, Italy, Germany and Africa. John-son, who is of Irish parentage, is now at Philip Behan's place, Mountjoy Lodge.

H. B. Duryea is the only American turfman who has made a nomination in the Coronation Cup at Epsom, and the Gold Cup at Ascot. His candidate for each of these events is the four-year-old bay colt Boyne II., by Irish Lad—Running Water.

Says Sporting Life of February 10: "There was no betting on future events in the London clubs yesterday. It is stated, however, that on Saturday M. J. Hennessy accepted a wager of $50,000 to $4,000 about his horse, Lutteur III., for the Grand National Steeplechase.

National Steeplechase.

The following are the dates of the principal European Derbys: Italian Derby, Thursday, April 16; Belgian Derby, Thursday, May 21; Epsom Derby, Wednesday, May 27; Austrian Derby, Sunday, June 7; Prix du Jockey Club, Sunday, June 14; German Derby, Sunday, June 28.

The conditions under which horses are admitted to the English Stud Book have been revised to read; 'No horse or mare can after this date be considered as eligible for admission unless it can be traced without flaw on both sire's and dam's side of its pedigree to horses and mares themselves already accepted in the earlier volumes of the book.' The returns for 1912 in the twenty-second volume of the Stud Book account for 5,597 mares.
